SURPRISE MARRIAGE

Interesting Ceremon, at Lourel Joining a Popu'ar Crunh, (Special to The Times-Dispatch) COMORN, VA., Oct. 28.—The marriage

at Laurel, Va., to-day of Mr. Charles B. Arnold and Miss Minnle F. Clarke, of this county, was a great surprise to heats of the friends and acquaintances an "elopement" about it. It was known to some that Mr. Arnold and Miss Clarke would be married "some time or other." for they had been lovers ever since they were little "school children," but scarcely a third of a dozen people in all the word could even sumise when the mr. rage would lake place—whether i a year, next year, or the "year after next. The time when and the place where the two would be made one was a secret that the lovers kept with ideal success.

Lautel, Va., was selected because Rev. James O. Kirk resides there. Mr. Kirk was pastor of the contracting pattles some years ago, when he resided in king George, and being the first pastor they ever had, the spiritual adviser of their youth, it was agreed, or understood, that if they were ever married the coremony should be performed by their first pastor, if he was living at the time.

Alies Clarke had been at Salem, Va., for some time, and came down to Laurel a few days ago, according to long-formed pags, to meet and be united with the man of her choice.

The couple are widely known, and both are deservedly popular in King George and neighboring counties. Both belong to good old Virginia families, whose name are inseparably connected with the history of King George and reighboring counties.
